

PlumbersStock.com is pleased to announce the opening of their Video Scholarship Contest. This is a unique scholarship contest that is being offered to an elite group of students studying in the select fields of Plumbing, HVAC, Sprinkler, and/or Irrigation. The contest is designed to help students gain real-world application experience while practicing their skills and abilities. In addition to this the program is geared to assist students in building up an exclusive item for their resume and job hunting. The Scholarship contest program is centered on creating a short How-To video that demonstrates skill, knowledge, and creativity. This is one of the easiest and fun scholarship contests that you can enter to win. There is a total of $3,000.00 in award money to be given away. The specific details and requirements of the scholarship are contained below.
